GLENDALÉ JUDGE TAKES ON PRESIDENCY OF GLENDALÉ ROTARY CLUB

Glendale, Ariz. — Judge Jean Baxter, a criminal courtroom judge at Glendale City Court, has been installed as the President of the Glendale Rotary Club, continuing her active participation in the community.

Judge Baxter has been a member of the Glendale Rotary since 1989 and is very involved in the Rotary's literacy programs for youth. She will serve as the president for a one-year term.

Along with Rotary, Judge Baxter has actively served the community as a Board of Trustees for Midwestern University, on the Glendale Salvation Army Advisory Board and has volunteered with Big Brothers/Big Sisters. She is also a past recipient of Arizona State University West's Women's Studies Program Appreciation Award.

The Glendale Rotary Club is part of Rotary International with over 1.2 million members worldwide. The Rotary motto is "Service above self." The international organization is more than 100 years old, and the Glendale Rotary Club will celebrate its 90th birthday this year. Among other projects, the club provides water for homeless in the summer, ushers at the Glendale Summer Band Concerts, rings the bell for Salvation Army, gives books to school children and honors local educators and students. The local club also participates on an international level in building houses in Mexico. Rotary International partners with other international efforts in eliminating polio and providing clean drinking water in areas of need.
